Can you help address the need for Food in this City: The Pantry Project is a project of The Churches Trust. It was established as a crisis response to meet the needs of people (individuals and families) who for one reason or another find themselves in a situation of extreme hardship. The Churches Trust collect food donations and work with community hubs to distribute food parcels to those in need. People from all walks of life have accessed our project. Last year we provided food to over 2000 people (adults and children). People can be referred to the project by contacting their local community groups, or Waterside Neighbourhood Partnership, or Greater Shantallow Area Partnership (Ethos project). Referrals have also been made via churches and onto The Churches Trust or indeed directly to The Churches Trust.

We would appreciate if you could bring non-perishable foods to the church next week. Flyers about the project are available at the back of the church. The Churches Trust will arrange to pick-up the food from the church. If you would like to know more about the Pantry Project, please call The Churches Trust on 71311322.

The Capacity to hear Clearly

What is said clearly is not always heard clearly. Every message is filtered as it is being received. How it is actually received depends on what is happening in the life of the listener.

In the gospel of St. Mark the miracles performed by Jesus reveal who he is, they point to his identity. The prophet Isaiah had said that with the coming of the Messiah the blind would see, the lame would walk, lepers would be cleansed, the deaf would hear and the dead would be raised to life. Jesus worked miracles in all of those areas.

Peter was the first to put the clues together and identify Jesus as the promised Messiah. Others did have the same experience as Peter but they missed the deeper meaning of events. The capacity of the disciples to hear clearly and interpret accurately was inhibited by factors such as fears, expectations, anxiety and what we call spiritual blindness. When Jesus spoke of going up to Jerusalem and facing suffering there, the disciples could not cope with the prospect. Fear of suffering and the very basic need to avoid harm and injury were so strong that what Jesus said clearly three times did not sink in. The frightened hearers blocked out the message. When Jesus summed up his life in terms of service and self-giving, his words made little impact. Even his closest companions did not understand him.

The gospel recounts how the sons of Zebedee aspired to the first places in the Kingdom. In minds where ambition for status held sway, the call to humble service didn't get much of a hearing. It's quite a journey from hearing what we want to wanting what we hear. Like the first disciples, we develop ways of evading what we find seriously challenging, of shutting out what threatens or disturbs, of sidestepping what makes demands. By giving us hearts that are free
